Hunter Classes

*to be held Sunday morning

Class 6. Walk/trot hunter line – To be ridden in a posting trot. The rider may 2-point over the poles but it's not required. The judge is looking for straight, centered lines, corners and correct posting diagonals.

Class 7. X rail hunter – To be ridden in a posting trot or controlled canter. Lead changes may be through the trot. If posting, the rider must be on the correct diagonal.

Class 8. 2' Hunter – May be ridden in a posting trot or controlled canter. Lead changes may be through the trot. If posting, must be on the correct diagonal.

Class 9. 2'3"-2'6" Hunter – Should be ridden in canter. Simple lead changes acceptable.

Class 10. 2'9"- 3' Hunter - Should be ridden in canter. Simple lead changes acceptable.

Jumper Classes

*to be held Sunday afternoon

Class 11. 2' Jumper – May be ridden in a posting trot or a controlled canter. This will be based on a Match the Clock competition where you must complete the course within a specified time.

Class 12. 2'3" – 2'6" Jumper – This will be Power and Speed competition where if the rider is clear over the first part of the course (The Power Portion), they may continue onto the Speed Portion. Only the Speed portion is to count once clear on the Power portion.

Class 13. 2'9"- 3' Jumper – This will be a Table C' speed competition. Instead of faults, there will be 4 additional seconds added on for each knock down. The fastest time wins.

Fun Class

*to be held on Saturday

Purse to be split as follows: 25% for first, 20% for second, 15% for third.

Class 14. Bribe Your Horse – You must get your horse to follow you, without touching the horse through a clover leaf course (like barrel racing). The barrels will be other humans with treats in their pockets! You can use any type of treat or bribe to get your horse to follow. Fastest time will win.

*schedule subject to change
